For New Courses approved for Spring 2017 after August 1, 2016 please see the Spring 2017 Class Schedule. Experimental Courses for the 2016-2017 Academic Year can also be found in the Class Schedule. The Class Schedule may be accessed through RAMweb or ARIESweb.

Updates

Update to Personal and Living Expenses (September 2016)

Housing Deposit

The $350 housing deposit for residence hall students serves as both a reservation fee and a contractual guarantee. A partial refund of this deposit is available if the applicant cancels his/her request prior to the date the residence halls open for the semester. For specific information about the refund policy, refer to the "Housing Deposit & Refund Information" outlined in the Housing Guide or on the Housing & Dining Services website (http://housing.colostate.edu).

University Apartments

A $340 application deposit is required for students applying for university apartments (after Nov. 1, 2016 - $350). This deposit will convert to a damage/cleaning deposit at the time of assignment. The deposit will be refunded any time prior to confirming an apartment assignment, upon request. The refund procedure for current apartment residents is outlined in the Apartment Life Housing Agreement. For further information, refer to the Housing Guide or the Housing & Dining Services website (http://housing.colostate.edu).
