Associate Professor Suzanne Faris, Chair, Department of Art and Art History
Associate Professor Haley Bates, Graduate Coordinator

CSU features a well-rounded curriculum integrating breadth of experience with depth of knowledge. Students develop both creative and critical thinking skills as they experiment with contemporary and traditional art making processes in a very active studio environment. In addition to essential liberal arts coursework, Art majors will be enrolled in studio and/or art history classes every semester as they progress through their program of study. On-site advisors are available to help students navigate the many options offered by the Department of Art and Art History.
