MAJOR IN ENGLISH, LANGUAGE CONCENTRATION

The Language concentration is for students who wish to focus on linguistics and teaching English as a second or foreign language, as well as literature, writing, and education. It is designed for students interested in all aspects of language and linguistics. It offers students the ability to study key theories in linguistics and second-language learning, functional aspects of language production and reception, and the impact of social and cultural contexts on language production and reception.

Requirements

Effective Fall 2015

For graduation, an English major must attain a minimum grade point average of 2.000 in upper-division composition and English courses.
