Applied Human Sciences-AHS (AHS)

Courses

AHS 201 Perspectives in Gerontology Credits: 3 (3-0-0)
Course Description: Using multidisciplinary perspectives to explore a variety of issues in human aging; emphasis on applied gerontology.
Prerequisite: HDFS 101 or PSY 100 or SOC 100.
Registration Information: Sections may be offered: Online.
Term Offered: Fall. Spring.
Grade Mode: Traditional.
Special Course Fee: No.

AHS 484 Supervised College Teaching Credits: 2 (0-0-2)
Course Description: Prerequisite: None.
Registration Information: A maximum of 10 combined credits for all 384 and 484 courses are counted towards graduation requirements.
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring. Summer.
Grade Mode: Instructor Option.
Special Course Fee: No.

AHS 487 Internship in Human Services Credits: Var[1-16]
Course Description: Application of skills learned in interdisciplinary program or major to a variety of human service settings.
Prerequisite: None.
Registration Information: Written consent of instructor.
Term Offered: Summer.
Grade Modes: S/U within Student Option, Trad within Student Option.
Special Course Fee: No.

AHS 490 Workshop Credits: Var[1-5]
Course Description:
Prerequisite: None.
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.
Grade Mode: Instructor Option.
Special Course Fee: No.

AHS 492 Seminar Credits: Var[1-5]
Course Description:
Prerequisite: None.
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.
Grade Mode: Instructor Option.
Special Course Fee: No.

AHS 495 Independent Study Credits: Var[1-5]
Course Description:
Prerequisite: None.
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.
Grade Mode: Instructor Option.
Special Course Fee: No.

AHS 590 Workshop Credits: Var[1-5]
Course Description:
Prerequisite: None.
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.
Grade Mode: Instructor Option.
Special Course Fee: No.