

CERTIFICATE IN APPLIED MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING FOR DECISION MAKING

The Certificate in Applied Management Accounting for Decision Making will provide students with accounting tools to make managerial decisions in a business setting. This certificate recognizes that such decisions require knowledge of budgetary and cost accounting information and accounting information systems, as well as discipline-specific knowledge.

Effective Fall 2018

Additional coursework may be required due to prerequisites.

Code	Title	Credits
ACT 321	Cost Management	3
ACT 350	Accounting Information Systems	3
Select one course from the following:		3
CIS 320	Project Management for Information Systems
MGT 375	Advanced Supply Management
MGT 377	Advanced Logistics
Program Total Credits:		9