

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN BUSINESS INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Graduate Certificate in Business Information Systems equips students with general information technology (IT) knowledge and skills to bring to their business or workplace. Students have the opportunity to a) learn to strategically implement technology within organizations and get a managerial-level understanding of infrastructure, applications, and data analytics, b) study critical project management topics such as project selection and life cycle, stakeholder management, scope and schedule development, and risk management, c) acquire knowledge about integrated business processes, Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP), Customer Relationship Management (CRM) and related software solutions, and d) understand the field of business intelligence (BI), including impacts, capabilities, and roles in decision making, as well as get hands-on experience with popular BI and analytical tools.

Effective Fall 2020

Additional coursework may be required due to prerequisites.

Code	Title	Credits
Select 3 courses from the following:		9
CIS 570	Business Intelligence
CIS 600A	Project Management: Information Technology
CIS 601/MGT 601	Enterprise Computing and Systems Integration
CIS 676	Information Technology Management
Program Total Credits:		9

*This certificate may have courses in common with other graduate certificates. A student may earn more than one certificate, but a given course may be counted only in one certificate.