

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN APPLIED FINANCE

Students obtain a solid background in business finance and investments by completing graduate-level introductory finance courses and more advanced electives in specialized areas of finance. Students select electives that best meet their educational and career goals.