

CERTIFICATE IN LEADERSHIP IN ORGANIZATIONS

The College of Business offers the Certificate in Leadership in Organizations to students majoring in Business Administration. This certificate provides students with a research-based understanding of leadership principles and experience-based skill development opportunities. These leadership competencies are valuable for job attainment, job performance, and career progression for students of all concentrations in the College of Business.