Dr. Anita Bundy, Department Head

The Department of Occupational Therapy is ranked among the top 10 programs in the nation by U.S. News and World Report and Best Value Programs, known nationally and internationally for its excellence. The department offers graduate-level education to prepare students as leaders in the field of occupational therapy. Faculty are engaged in nationally and internationally recognized research and community outreach that meet the needs of people facing challenges in everyday life.

The Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE) of the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA) is our accrediting body. Their address is 6116 Executive Boulevard, Suite 200, North Bethesda, MD 20852-4929; (301) 652-6611. The National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy (NBCOT) is the credentialing agency responsible for the development and implementation of the certification process for OT practitioners.

Students interested in more information regarding prerequisite and application requirements may contact the department at (970) 491-6253 or otinfo@colostate.edu.
