The School of Music, Theatre, and Dance at CSU provides a rigorous undergraduate educational experience.

CSU Music believes that music is both an artistic and intellectual pursuit. We offer intense training in specialized music disciplines combined with a balance of core music courses in music history and theory. Our renowned and versatile faculty are committed to helping students discover their own unique identities through music. We offer Bachelor of Music (B.M.) degrees in Music Therapy, Music Education, Music Composition, and Music Performance, as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Music (B.A.). Additionally, undergraduates can earn a performance-based music minor.

CSU Theatre emphasizes a reciprocal relationship between practice and scholarly study. Students explore every aspect of theatre, including the theory and practice of acting, singing, theatrical design, stage management, technical theatre, dramaturgy, dramatic criticism, storytelling, and playwriting. Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre (B.A.) choose a concentration: Performance, Musical Theatre, Set Design, Lighting Design and Technology, Projection Design and Technology, or Sound Design and Technology. Each concentration provides fundamental skills and experiences in theatre within a liberal arts context.

CSU Dance offers programs in classical and contemporary dance education culminating in either a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance (B.F.A.) or a Bachelor of Arts in Dance (B.A.). Students focus on areas such as performance, technique, and foundations; choreography and improvisation; pedagogy and teaching methodologies; history and theory; and theatrical production and design. Dance majors explore the many possibilities for movement expression, along with creativity and scholarly examination, in a challenging and supportive environment.

Non-performing arts majors are welcome to participate in music ensembles, marching band, theatre productions, theatre shops, dance concerts, and dance technique classes. Many activities require an audition and some do not. Please visit our website for information about how to get involved as a non-performing arts major.

The School of Music, Theatre, and Dance offers graduate programs leading to the Master of Music (M.M.), offering students the skills and experience necessary to become highly skilled music educators, music therapists, performing artists, and conductors.

The vibrant learning environment fosters and supports creativity and growth while high standards of teaching, scholarship, performance and research are developed. We are pleased to offer small academic classes, applied study with highly qualified faculty, and careful attention to advising. With over 100 performance dates a year, performance opportunities are extensive and the department represents the arts on campus in a highly visible and prestigious environment.

Applicants to graduate programs in music must have a B.M., B.M.E., or equivalent bachelor’s degree. Students interested in graduate work should refer to the Graduate and Professional Bulletin (http://catalog.colostate.edu/general-catalog/graduate-bulletin/) and the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance (http://music.colostate.edu/).
