

MAJOR IN THEATRE, MUSICAL THEATRE CONCENTRATION

Students in the B.A. in Theatre, Musical Theatre Concentration practice incremental techniques and skills necessary for the art form of musical theatre – including singing, dancing, and acting – and musical theatre history, theory, and repertoire. Students train to analyze and perform contemporary and classical scripts as actors, to effectively deliver highly physical staging or dance, and to practice healthy habits that support a lifetime of vocal production for the stage, screen, and/or recording. As informed collaborators, students contribute to the creation, rehearsal, development, and future of musical theatre performance.

In addition to the overall CSU Theatre Program Learning Objectives, the Musical Theatre Concentration includes the following unique learning objectives:

- MUSICAL THEATRE IN PERFORMANCE: Develop a unique artistic vision by practicing incremental techniques and skills necessary to perform in the discipline of musical theatre, including singing, dancing, and acting.
- MUSICAL THEATRE ARTISTRY: Develop an understanding of the musical theatre performer as a collaborative artist, and creative visionary, and explore the discipline of musical theatre as an artform, its history, repertoire, conventions, and etiquette.

CSU Theatre produces one full-scale musical each season.

Musical Theatre Concentration Audition:

In addition to applying to CSU through the Office of Admissions, a successful audition with CSU Theatre faculty is required to enter the B.A. in Theatre, Musical Theatre Concentration. Your program audition is also your scholarship audition. Please visit theatre.colostate.edu for more information.

Musical Theatre Program Fee

A program fee is assessed with undergraduate and graduate music and musical theatre majors, and music minors, per semester. This does not apply to the following students: online degree students, summers-only master's degree students, music therapy students in an internship off-campus, music education students who are student teaching off-campus, and music minors who are not actively enrolled in any lessons or ensembles. Please visit the (<https://provost.colostate.edu/students/>)Office of the Provost and Executive Vice President website for special course fees.
