

MASTER OF PUBLIC POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION, PLAN C, INTERNATIONAL POLICY AND MANAGEMENT SPECIALIZATION

The International Policy and Management specialization of the Master of Public Policy and Administration (MPPA) program provides a mixture of academic and applied education in public policy and administration within the international arena. All curriculum of the program is geared towards providing students with the necessary skills and knowledge to become successful international policy practitioners.

Students interested in graduate work should refer to the Graduate and Professional Bulletin.

Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion, students will be able to:

1. Explain, articulate, and exemplify the ethics, values, responsibilities, obligations and social roles of an international policy practitioner.
2. Identify and apply economic, legal, political, social, and ethical theories and frameworks to the practice of international public policy and administration.
3. Identify and apply organizational theories and frameworks to the practice of international public policy and administration.
4. Respond to and engage collaboratively with diverse stakeholders and communities to address challenges in the public interest.
5. Understand the complexities of public policy design, implementation, and assessment in the international arena.
6. Employ appropriate methodologies and techniques to investigate, monitor and manage human, fiscal, technological, information, physical, and other resource use in the international arena.
7. Conceptualize, analyze, and develop creative and collaborative solutions to challenges in public policy and administration in the international arena.
8. Assess challenges and explore solutions to advance cross-sectoral and inter jurisdictional cooperation in public programs and services.
9. Develop and demonstrate verbal and written communication skills as a professional and through interpersonal interactions in groups and in society.
10. Reflect critically about emerging issues concerning public policy and administration in the international arena.