

MINOR IN ETHNIC STUDIES

The minor in Ethnic Studies provides an opportunity for students to take a group of courses that address the impact of race, culture, class, gender, and sexuality in shaping institutions, social relations, and identities. Regardless of the main area of students' academic focus and career aspirations, a minor in Ethnic Studies will be advantageous as employers and organizations increasingly look for individuals capable of communicating across difference and addressing issues of equity and justice.

For more information on the minor, please visit the department website (<https://ethnicstudies.colostate.edu/undergraduate/>).

Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of the program of study, students will:

1. Demonstrate a critical understanding of key concepts shaping racial and ethnic formations and structures.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of the social histories and cultural experiences of racial and ethnic groups.
3. Select and model respectful engagement with diverse populations.
4. Apply an understanding of the value of social consciousness and personal responsibility.
5. Develop critical thinking, writing, and reading skills to their intellectual and personal pursuits.
