

MAJOR IN WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES

The Women's and Gender Studies major prepares individuals for the needs and opportunities of an increasingly interconnected and interdependent world by building awareness of the range of human experience, potential, and accomplishment that place women and gender at the center of inquiry.

Please visit the Center for Women's Studies & Gender Research (<https://womensstudies.colostate.edu/>) for more information.

Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of the program of study, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate mastery of knowledge of academic disciplines from feminist and intersectional perspectives.
2. Analyze historic and contemporary contributions of women of all cultures.
3. Demonstrate effective oral communication, writing, and research skills.
4. Implement critical thinking, writing, reading skills to their intellectual, professional, and personal lives.
5. Assess critical ideological understandings regarding women and gender implicit in social institutions and structures.

To change your major to Women's and Gender Studies, you can either call the College of Liberal Arts Academic Advising Center at 970-491-3117 or send an email to cla_advising@colostate.edu. More information is available on <https://advising.libarts.colostate.edu>.
